CALL FOR PAPERS

Organized by

Department of History

Dear Staff, Scholars and Students,

The Department of History, E.M.G. Yadava Women's College, Madurai, Tamilnadu, cordially invites your paper and participation to the International Conference on Eco and Sustainable Tourism to be held on 11th & 12th March, 2013.

Profile of the Institution

E.M.G. Yadava Women's College, Madurai was established by the Philanthropist, Thiru. E.M.Gopalakrishna Kone in the year 1974. This College is now patronized by our President and Secretary, Tmt. E.M.G.S. Indirani, an able administrator and spiritualist. As the motto of the college "Family upliftment through enriching Women's Knowledge", the institution is striving its best to offer the Quality Education to the under privileged girl students of this region. Our College is the educational feeding centre for more than 70 villages in Madurai, Virudhunagar and Ramnad Districts. The University Grants Commission granted 'A' Grade and Autonomous status to the College speaks about the educational scenario prevailing in the campus. Almost all courses in U.G and special courses in P.G are offered and the students strength has risen to more than 3500. To its credit, the college has been awarded with Best College for Students Services and Communal Harmony in 2006. This premier institution is now listed among the top ranking women colleges of the state.

About the Department

The Department of History is doing a yeomen service to the society since its inception in 1979. The Department is offering both Tamil and English medium to assist the first generation learners of the rural pockets of Madurai and Ramnad District. In an innovative attempt, the Department is practising the teaching technology through field exposure and practical applications. Involving the students in assisting the Government Agencies to preserve the traditional and historical monuments is a special thing to mention. Special thrust on Tourism is provided in the curriculum. The Department is giving much attention to the changing scenario and developing the students not only a knowledgeable but also an employable. The strong faculty and steadfast students of this Department have proved their expertise in organizing State and National level events including Youth Parliament, History of Science and Technology - Expo etc., in the college. Moulding the students to the Moral binding citizens is the motto of the Department.

About the Conference

In the field of international arena, Tourism plays a positive role. It is a potential force for bringing about world peace and international understanding. Eco Tourism is a recent phenomenon and it has become one of the growing sectors of the Tourism industry.

Eco-Tourism focuses on volunteering personal growth and learning new ways to live on the planet, typically involving travel to destinations where flora and fauna and cultural heritage are the primary attractions.

Sustainable development is a complex and broad concept. The goals of sustainable development are not merely the development and well-being of all human beings but that of all other species also. Eco and Sustainable Tourism issues have become now a subject of considerable attention within the framework of sustainable development particularly from the point of view of maximization of human welfare relating to a vital question as to how the present generation should utilize rare valuable natural resources in an optimum manner. In this context it is expected that the proposed conference will give new insight into the Eco- and Sustainable Tourism issues of our society and in turn it will pay way for finding suitable and sustainable remedies by way of discussions and deliberations.

The Inter National Conference on Eco and Sustainable Tourism will focus the multi-dimensional value of Eco and Sustainable Tourism.

Objectives of the Conference

The Conference brings together a delegation that is made up of a broad range of sectors that play a direct and indirect role in delivering Sustainable Tourism and Eco Tourism providing delegates with an excellent opportunity to examine and debate critical new research and policy, emerging issues and opportunities influencing the industry and its further development and sustainability. Through bringing together this diverse group of industry leaders, it is possible to gain practical and tangible benefits for Eco and Sustainable Tourism. It will provide the latest insight in challenges and opportunities facing the industry. To create a framework for sustainability, it will give equal weight to biological, economic and socio-anthropological factors.
