AARI EMBROIDERY WORK

The Skill Development Course on Aari Embroidery Work was organized by the Skill Development Coordinators of E.M.G. Yadava Women's College, Madurai. This 90-hour hands-on training program was conducted by Ms.S.Chitra, a seasoned trainer from Tamil Nadu Polytechnic and the Women's Welfare Centre, Kalavasal, Madurai.

Objectives:

1. Equip participants with the technical expertise required to master Aari embroidery.
2. Foster creativity and innovation in traditional art forms.
3. Encourage financial independence by developing entrepreneurial skills.
4. Provide insights into professional embroidery techniques and quality standards.

Course Content

The course covered the following aspects:

- Introduction to Aari embroidery tools and materials.
- Fundamental stitches and patterns in Aari work.
- Advanced techniques for intricate designs.
- Application of embroidery on various fabrics and garments.
- Market strategies for establishing a small-scale embroidery business.

Programme Outcomes:

1. Participants gained comprehensive knowledge and hands-on experience in Aari embroidery, enhancing their technical and creative skills.
2. Many trainees expressed confidence in using this skill for income-generating ventures.
3. The training encouraged students to explore innovative design ideas, blending traditional and modern aesthetics.
4. The course motivated participants to consider entrepreneurship, equipping them with basic insights into starting and managing a business in embroidery.
