75th INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

Objective:

- To pay tribute to the nation and the freedom fighters.

Program Outcome:

Upon successful completion of the event, students comprehended the profound significance of the day, recognizing it as a tribute to the valour and spirit of freedom fighters. The event instilled in them a sense of national pride and honour, fostering an appreciation for the sacrifices made by those who fought for India's independence.

Report:

Independence Day, marking the 75th anniversary of India's freedom, was commemorated with reverence and patriotism at our college on 15.8.2021. The objective of the celebration was to pay tribute to the heroic leaders who played pivotal roles in securing our nation's freedom and to honour those who sacrificed their lives for the cause.

The solemn occasion saw the unfurling of the National Flag by Thiru. E.M.G.S Pothi Raja, the President of the institution, symbolizing the values of unity, integrity, and freedom that the flag represents. The entire administrative body, along with teaching and non-teaching staff members, actively participated in the celebration, reflecting the collective commitment to acknowledging and preserving the legacy of India's independence.

The event, marked by patriotic fervour, aimed to imbue students with a deep sense of respect for the sacrifices made by freedom fighters. Through various activities and ceremonies, students were sensitized to the historical significance of Independence Day and the enduring spirit of patriotism it represents.

As the National Flag fluttered high, and the echoes of the National Anthem resonated, the celebration served as a poignant reminder of the struggles and triumphs that shaped the destiny of our nation. The event successfully achieved its objective of paying homage to the nation and the freedom fighters, leaving a lasting impact on the hearts and minds of the college community.
