ORIENTATION FOR FRESHER'S

Objectives:

The orientation program aimed to help new students acclimate to their new surroundings by fostering a welcoming environment. It sought to ignite enthusiasm and motivation among students, encouraging them to embrace their college journey. Additionally, the orientation aimed to familiarize students with the various courses and programs offered on campus, ensuring they are well-informed about their academic options.

Programme Outcome:

The orientation was highly effective, with students actively engaging in discussions and activities designed to ease their transition into college life. They gained valuable insights into the courses available, met faculty members, and formed connections with peers. This initiative successfully laid a strong foundation for their academic and social experiences, instilling confidence as they embarked on their educational journey.
