BOOK REVIEW

Objectives:

1. To develop literary engagement and cultivate critical thinking skills and constructive discourse among students across the nation.
2. To boost students' self-confidence by developing their analytical and interpretive skills.
3. To instill a lifelong reading habit, enhancing students' abilities to think critically and analyze complex ideas.
4. To teach students the art of book critique, helping them evaluate a book's strengths and weaknesses.
5. To promote reading as a fundamental skill for personal and intellectual growth.

Programme Outcomes:

1. Students successfully developed a consistent reading habit and improved their abilities to analyze and critically interpret literary works.
2. Through evaluations of various texts, students learned to assess both positive and negative aspects of each book, reflecting on life lessons they could apply personally.
3. Participants gained insights into the art of book review, learning to appreciate excellence in literary critique.
4. The program fostered a platform for nationwide literary engagement, encouraging students to engage in meaningful discourse, develop critical thinking skills, and contribute constructively to literary discussions.
