AWARENESS PROGRAMME FOR WOMEN ON GOVERNMENT SCHEME

Objectives:

- To raise general awareness on social issues, enabling rural and poor women to realize their potential within their families and society.

Report:

On 07.01.2023, an awareness Programme for Women on Government Schemes was conducted with the participation of students and community members. The event aimed to inform rural and poor women about the social issues they face and the potential they hold within their families and communities.

Activities Conducted:

Students delivered detailed presentations on various government schemes designed to empower women. These sessions included explanations of how these schemes work, eligibility criteria, and the benefits they offer. Interactive discussions were held to engage the women and answer their questions about the schemes. This provided a platform for women to voice their concerns and seek clarification. Informational brochures and pamphlets were distributed to ensure the women had access to detailed information about the schemes.

Impact and Feedback:

The programme received positive feedback from the participants. Women expressed their gratitude for the valuable information provided and showed a keen interest in participating in the schemes discussed.

Programme Outcome:

- Students and Publics successfully identified various development schemes offered by the government aimed at empowering women and ensuring gender equality.
- Students effectively created awareness among the women in the village about these schemes, highlighting opportunities for skill development and enhanced earning potential
