CONSULTANCY SERVICE ON "MIS EXCEL"

Objectives:

To demonstrate how Excel can be used as a real-time business tool to generate and track data through an interactive dashboard, enabling better decision-making and operational efficiency.

Programme Outcome:

The consultancy service successfully demonstrated the capabilities of MS Excel as a powerful tool for spreadsheet and database management. Participants learned how to utilize Excel to update and manage crucial business data, such as financial records and employee information. The service highlighted how Excel's features could assist companies in analyzing productivity and revenue, thereby improving overall business performance. The training provided practical insights into creating and using Excel MIS reports, enabling alumnae participants to apply these skills to their organizational needs.
