FRESHERS DAY

Objectives:

Freshers Day aimed to encourage newcomers to actively participate in college activities while fostering a sense of belonging within the campus community. The event sought to help students acclimate to their new environment by introducing them to various opportunities for engagement and learning.

Programme Outcome:

The Freshers Day was a resounding success, with students actively participating in various activities and events designed to showcase the vibrant college culture. They had the chance to interact with seniors, learn about different clubs and organizations, and share their experiences. This event not only eased their transition into college life but also instilled confidence and motivation to engage fully in their academic journey.
