SPORTS DAY

Report:

E.M.G Yadava Women's College takes immense pleasure in honouring and awarding the talented students, who are participating in sports in and out of the campus. 48th Sports Day was celebrated in the campus with much enhanced pomp and glory quality, reduce, stress, and to improve mental and physical health. The aim of this celebration is to emphasize the importance of sports in student's life. The day started off with the divine invocation of the lord's blessing and inaugurated by releasing balloons and pigeons. The chief guest, Mr. Veera Kathirvan, Additional Advocate General of Madras High Court, Madurai. Our respected Secretary and Correspondent, Principal and the members of the Management saluted to the impressive March Past of the students from various departments. The lighting of the torch and Olympic flame stood as a symbol of the greatest event, Olympics. Where our colleges students champions carried the Olympic torch majestically. The entire day was glorified by the magnificent performance of students in Yoga, Karate, and Silambam. Students belonging to different Houses (Red, Blue, Green and Yellow) competed with each other and the overall shield and championship was bagged by the Green House.

At the end of the day, the students were filled with sportsmanship, enthusiasm and memories to cherish.

A Cheering and Joyous welcome address was given by the dynamic Principal followed by the chief guest inspiring speech where he insisted on the significance of women's physical and mental health in the nation's development.
