FACULTY EXCHANGE PROGRAMME ON "DATA COLLECTION AND CONSTRUCTION OF QUESTIONNAIRE"

Objectives:

1. To gather information systematically and accurately to facilitate effective data analysis.
2. To learn the techniques for constructing a well-designed questionnaire for research projects.

Programme Outcome:

Participants gained a comprehensive understanding of the critical role of systematic data collection and the construction of effective questionnaires. The programme highlighted best practices in designing questionnaires that yield reliable and relevant data, essential for robust research outcomes. Faculty members acquired practical skills in gathering accurate data and developing questionnaires tailored to specific research needs, thereby enhancing their ability to conduct and supervise high-quality research projects. This knowledge will support improved research practices and project outcomes within the academic community.
